

SLIDIN DAZE STOCK HORSE SERIES

continues to be a hugely successful format for exhibitors choosing to show in various organizations and classes. The Slidin Daze shows will offer the following:

STOCK HORSE classes including Reining, Ranch Trail, Ranch Pleasure & Cow Horse Divisions include Open, NP, Limited NP, Intermediate NP, Novice, Open Novice Horse, Non-Pro Jr Horse, Youth and Novice Youth. During the collegiate school year the collegiate divisions of Non Pro, Jr Horse, Limited Non Pro and Novice will be offered. Criteria for these divisions will follow the SHTX 2022 Handbook.

OPEN HERD WORK classes follow the NRCHA Herd Work rules and utilize the NRCHA score sheets. Divisions offered are Senior Horse, Junior Horse, Non Pro, Youth and Ranch Cutting. Jackpot is optional.

AQHA Versatility Ranch Horse (7 Divisions, 6 class slate), AQHA Ranch Riding, AQHA Cutting, AQHA WCH/Boxing

We are committed to satisfying the desires & needs of the exhibitors that will show and have shown with us over the years.

1. Slidin Daze will not require a membership to show in our stock horse or open herd work classes.
2. AQHA memberships will be necessary as required by the association, when showing in any AQHA class.
3. Slidin Daze will provide an avenue for exhibitors to earn AQHA recognition, while still competing for the Slidin Daze Stock Horse and AQHA VRH Series awards.
4. Exhibitors will have the opportunity to qualify for AQHA World Shows, including the:

AQHA World Show ~ AQHA VRH World Championships

AQHYA World Show ~ AQHA Select World Show ~ All Level 1 AQHA Championship Shows

5. Exhibitors will still be eligible to go to the SHTX finals, as there is NO qualification outside of purchasing your SHTX membership prior to the finals show.
6. Slidin Daze will submit all year end results, earnings and titles to Robin Glenn Pedigree to be added to registered horse records. This will enhance the value of your horses.
7. Stock Horse classes will follow the SHTX hand book and will utilize the NRSHA score sheets. AQHA classes will follow the AQHA rule book and will utilize the appropriate AQHA score sheets. Open Herd Work classes will follow NRCHA herd work rules and score sheets. All scoring will run consistently under the universal 70point scoring system.

Slidin Daze will award year-end series Stock Horse All Around and Reserve All Around awards, AQHA Versatility All Around and Reserve All Around awards. Additionally, we will again award school year 2021-2022 awards for all four Collegiate divisions, for our collegiate circuit. For collegiate riders to be eligible for circuit awards, they must show at 4 of the 7 shows offering the collegiate divisions from September 2021 through May 2022.

We firmly intend to provide the greatest opportunity for you all to move forward on your journey, whether that is building confidence and show experience on a green horse, honing your own show skills in a low- pressure environment, schooling your horses in the Stock Horses classes or the herd work, without the need for any membership.

We are grateful to each and every one who has supported our shows over the years and we look forward to continuing to serve our great industry! While 2020-2021 brought many cancellations and frustrations, in 2022 you will still find the same smiling faces, hospitality and our un-wavering commitment to bring you the Best Judges, Cattle, Facilities, Ground and Showing Experience that we absolutely can provide!! Please stay tuned for the details of our 2022 Special Event to be held during the Spectacular in July. This year the show will be held at the Double Check Arena northeast of Eaton, Colorado and replaces our Estes Park show.

SLIDIN DAZE SERIES RULES

1. Contestants (one horse/rider team) must enter the all-around in at least five out of the eight shows, which must include a minimum of two Slidin Daze hosted events. (Palooza, Spectacular and Fall Classic)
2. Each show will place the all-around riders top to bottom and points will be assigned by the HSW Show program, with first place earning one point for themselves and one point for each team placing below.
 - a. IE if there are ten all around entries in a division, the high point all around team will earn 10 points in the series, the 5th place team will earn 6 points and the 10th place team will earn 1 point.
3. Series awards will be given to the top end riders that have entered the four (4) stock horse all around events at a minimum of five shows, (9-10 judges). The events include reining, working cowhorse, ranch trail and ranch pleasure. Series awards will be given to the top end riders that have entered the six (6) AQHA VRH all around events at a minimum of five shows (10 judges). The AQHA VRH events include ranch cutting, reining, working cowhorse, ranch trail, ranch pleasure and conformation.
4. The year-end award placings will use the points from the Horse/Rider teams highest six judges for the year end standings, as long as you have attended a minimum of two Slidin Daze hosted events. Should there be a tie, tie breaker will be high points in head to head shows, in the cowhorse class placings, if there is still a tie the riders six show cow horse/box scores will be totaled and high score will win the award. If there is still a tie, the next class considered will be trail, followed by reining and ranch pleasure.
5. All stock horse class exhibitors (for open and collegiate shows) must follow the division guidelines defined in the STHX Handbook. If an exhibitor enters at a level that they do not qualify for, Slidin Daze will charge a $100 fine. It is the responsibility of the contestant to enter an appropriate division.

NOTE: Slidin Daze will continue to offer the Open Novice Horse Division.
This division is open to any horse/rider that:

- 1.) has not won over $500 in any type of competition
- 2.) has not won any points in any association
- 3.) has never won or been reserve in any show or year-end
- 4.) If eligible on January 1st, will be eligible for the entire show season
- 5.) OR a true Junior Horse, 5 or under
